

TUNG CHUNG CATHOLIC SCHOOL

ENGLISH NEWSLETTER

1ST SEMESTER

2019- 2020

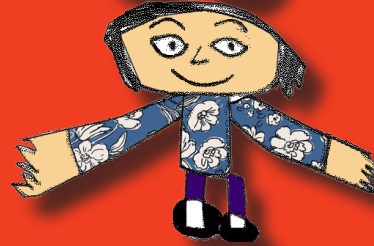

PEOPLE AT MY SCHOOL

BY IP WAI SUM (IA)

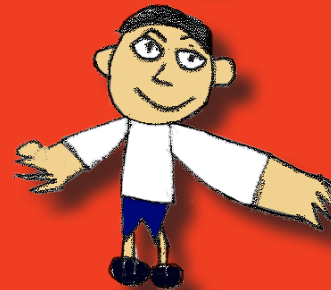

This is me. My name is Melody Ip.
I am a good girl.

This is Miss Chan.
She is my class teacher. She is nice.

This is Ma Yan Hei.
He is my monitor. He is a good boy.

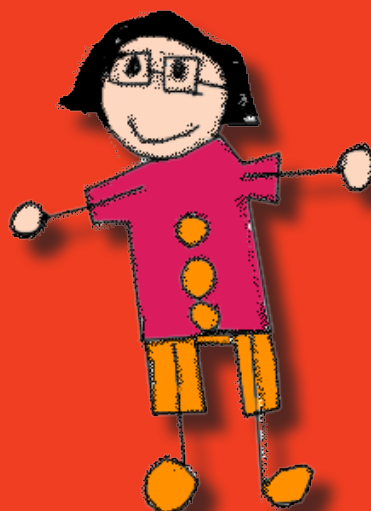

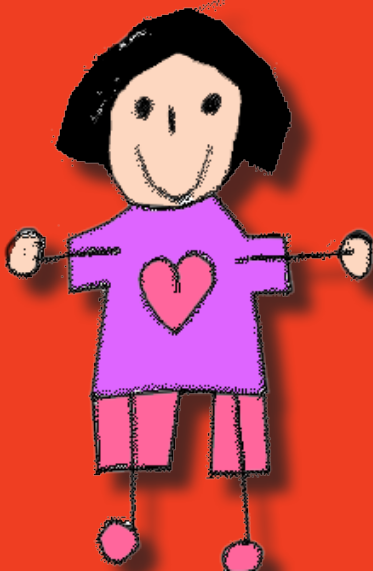

BY KOON PUI YI (IB)

This is Me. I am Koon Pui Yi. I am six years old. I am in class IB.
I am in group three.

This is Miss Li. She is our English teacher. She is our class teacher.
She is nice.

This is Yim Tsz Yau. She is our monitress. She is a good girl.

BY CHONG WAN HEI (ID)

I am Chong Wan Hei. I am seven years old.

I am a good boy.

My class teacher is Miss Hui. She is twenty-five years old. She is our class teacher.

Wong Kam Yuen is a good monitor.

He is seven years old.

Super Girl!

BY LAU MEI YAN, ZAINAM & OU WAI IP (IC)

This is Super Girl.

She has big eyes.

She has long legs.

She has a super ice-cream.

She has four cats.

Mary!

BY CHEUNG WAI (1E)

This is Mary.
She has long hair.
She has big eyes.
She has a small mouth.
She has long legs.
She has beautiful feet.
She is thin.

SILLY SPIDER AND CLEVER CAT

BY LI WAI (2A)

Hello.

Hello. Are you hungry, clever cat? Do you like hot dogs?

Yes, I like hot dogs.

Where can we buy hot dogs?

We can buy hot dogs in a restaurant.

Then, they go to a restaurant to buy hot dogs.

BY YEUNG TSZ HAM (2C)

Hello. Nice to meet you.

Are you hungry, clever cat? Do you like eggs?

Yes, I like eggs.

Where can we buy eggs?

We can buy eggs at the supermarket.

Then, they go to a supermarket on the third floor.

BY WANG KANG YU (2D)

Hello. Nice to meet you.

Are you hungry, clever cat? Do you like mushrooms and sausages?

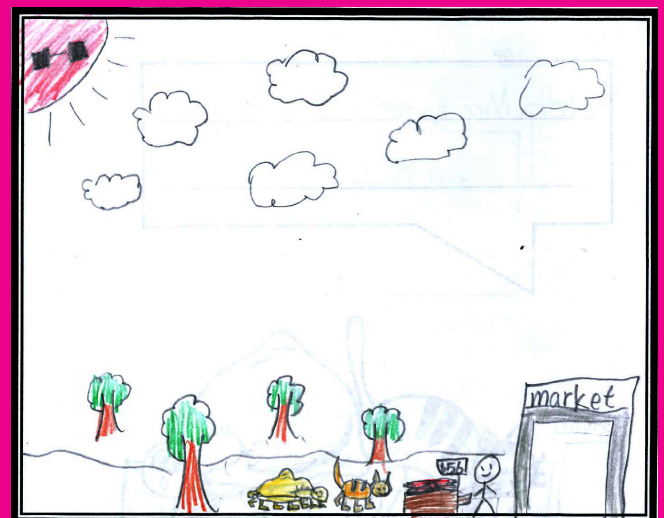

I like sausages but I don't like mushrooms.

Where can we buy sausages?

We can buy sausages in a market.

Then, they go to the market on the ground floor.

BY WONG TSZ KIU (2F)

Hello. Nice to meet you.

Are you hungry, clever cat? Do you like tarts and hot dogs?

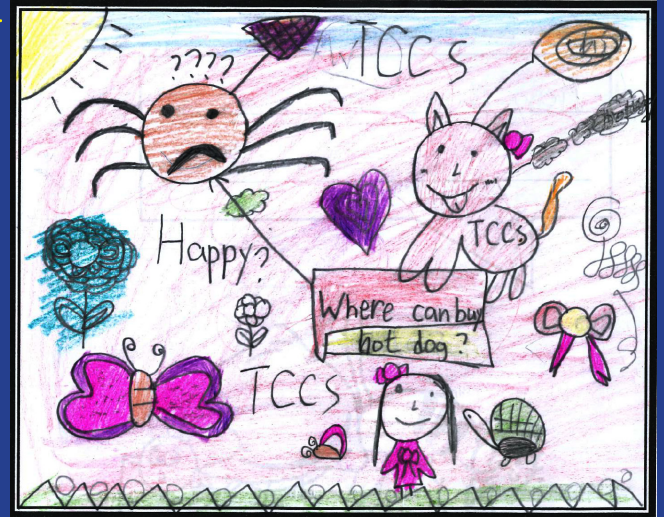

I like tarts but I don't like hot dogs.

Where can you buy tarts?

We can buy tarts in a cake shop.

Then, they go to the cake shop on the fifth floor.

BY WONG HO CHING (2G)

Hello.

Are you hungry, clever cat? Do you like jam?

Yes, I like jam.

Where can we buy jam?

We can buy jam in my supermarket.

Then, they go to a supermarket to buy jam.

SORRY! I DIDN'T SEE THE SIGN!

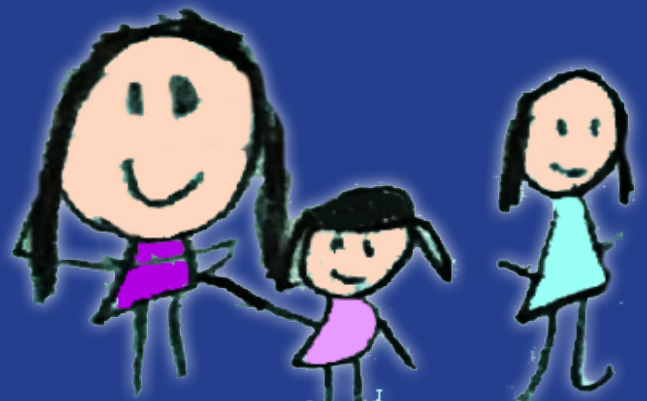

BY HE TSZ KI (2B)

Today, I go to the zoo with Lily.
I see some rabbits. I touch the rabbits.
“We must not touch the rabbits,” Lily says.
“I’m sorry. I didn’t see the sign,” I say.
Then, we go to a tuck shop.

PEREZ AALIYAH ROSE (2E)

Today, I go to the cinema with my friends.
I see so many people there. I talk on my phone.
“We must not talk loudly on the phone,”
my friend says. “I’m sorry. I didn’t see the sign,” I say.
Then, we go to the toy shop.

THE SCHOOL PICNIC

BY NG TSZ CHING (3A)

Today is the school picnic. In the morning, we go to the country park with our class teachers and our classmates.

We go there by school bus. We see some pretty yellow flowers and we sing songs. We are delighted.

In the country park, we have a picnic. We eat ham and cheese sandwiches and drink cola.

Then Cindy flies a pink and purple kite after lunch. She is joyful. Suddenly, Cindy sees a big green frog on the grass. 'Oh no! Go away!' shouts Cindy.

She is very scared. She falls down and gets hurt.

BY LAW HO YIN (3B)

It was the thirty-first of December. It was the day of the school picnic. Kay and her friends went to the country park by coach. They settled down on the grass and ate sandwiches together. Kay brought a bottle of water to drink and a packet of cookies to eat.

Suddenly, it rained heavily. Kay felt sad because she failed to fly a kite. 'Oh no!' shouted Kay.

In the end, Kay played card games with friends, and they played with dolls at home because the weather was bad.

BY ZHOU CHOU KI (3C)

Today is Monday. In the morning, we go to the country park with teachers by school bus. Mary enjoys the food with two of her classmates and flies her kite alone.

Suddenly, a frog jumps out from the grass when she flies the kite. She immediately grabs the frog and kisses it because she wants to marry a prince.

BY CHAN WAN ON (3E)

Today is Monday. We have a picnic with the teacher and we have free activities in the country park. We see flowers and sing songs.

It's picnic time. Lily and the children go eating. We have sandwiches and drink water. Then it is free time. Lily wants to fly the coloured kite by herself.

Lily flies a kite and suddenly, she sees a frog jumping out of the grass and looking at Lily. Lily shouts, 'There is a frog!'

In the end, the frog is scared away by Lily's voice. The teacher immediately rushes over and sees Lily is fine. So, they go back to school by school bus!

BY VERLYN (3F)

Today is the school picnic. In the morning, we go to the country park with the teachers and classmates. We go there by bus. We have a picnic. We eat sandwiches. Naomi flies a kite.

Suddenly, she sees a frog. 'Go away UGLY FROG!' says Naomi. The frog jumps on Naomi.

In the end, Naomi falls down and hurts her head and arms. She cries loudly. Her teachers and classmates go to find Naomi. They see the frog on Naomi's legs then scream loudly.

Billy's Own Day

BY LAW PAK YIU (3D)

Today is Tuesday. It is warm and foggy. Billy goes to the playground with his friends. They go there by MTR. They play football and go ice-skating. They are happy.

A Letter From Grandma

BY CHAN YONG MING (4A)

Dear Kathy,

I am so glad to get your letter! I miss you too!

Life in Hong Kong fifty years ago was very different from now. There were not any mobile phones. Everybody contacted each other by writing letters. There weren't any supermarkets. Everybody bought food from the market. There weren't any tall buildings in the past. People lived in small huts.

When I was little, there were not any electronic games. Everybody played hopscotch and hide-and-seek. There wasn't a theme park. The children played in the school playground.

I think it is more fun to play in a theme park. What do you think?

Tell me when you come next time.

Hope to see you soon!

Love,
Grandma

BY CHAN WING YAN (4B)

Dear Kathy,

I am so glad to get your letter! I miss you too!

There weren't any mobile phones. People contacted others by writing letters. They bought food at markets. There weren't any supermarkets. There weren't any tall buildings.

There weren't any electronic games in the past. The children played hide-and-seek or hopscotch. There wasn't a theme park. The children played in the playground.

Hope to see you soon.

Love,
Grandma

BY CHAN MEI YU (4D)

Dear Kathy,

I am so glad to get your letter! I miss you too!

Life in Hong Kong fifty years ago was very different from now. There were not any mobile phones. People contacted with others by mail. There were not any supermarkets.

When I was little, there were not any electronic games. Every child played hopscotch and hide-and-seek. There was not a theme park. The children played in the playground.

Hope to see you soon!

Love,
Grandma

A PICNIC BY CHEN XI TONG (4C)

Yesterday John and his family went for a picnic in the park. They bought a bunch of bananas, a loaf of bread and a tin of sausages. The food cost $116.9.

They went to the country park by bus. They left the food on the bus. John and his family were hungry.

They went to a restaurant and had spaghetti with mushrooms, tuna salad and chicken curry. They said, "Yummy!"

A Letter From Grandma

BY KAITLYN YEUNG (4ES/4A)

Dear Kathy,

I am really glad you sent me this letter! I really do miss you.

I'm eager to help you with school magazines.

Fifty years ago, Hong Kong was very traditional. We didn't have any mobile phones, so we used parchment paper to write letters. It was only twenty years ago since they created mobile phones.

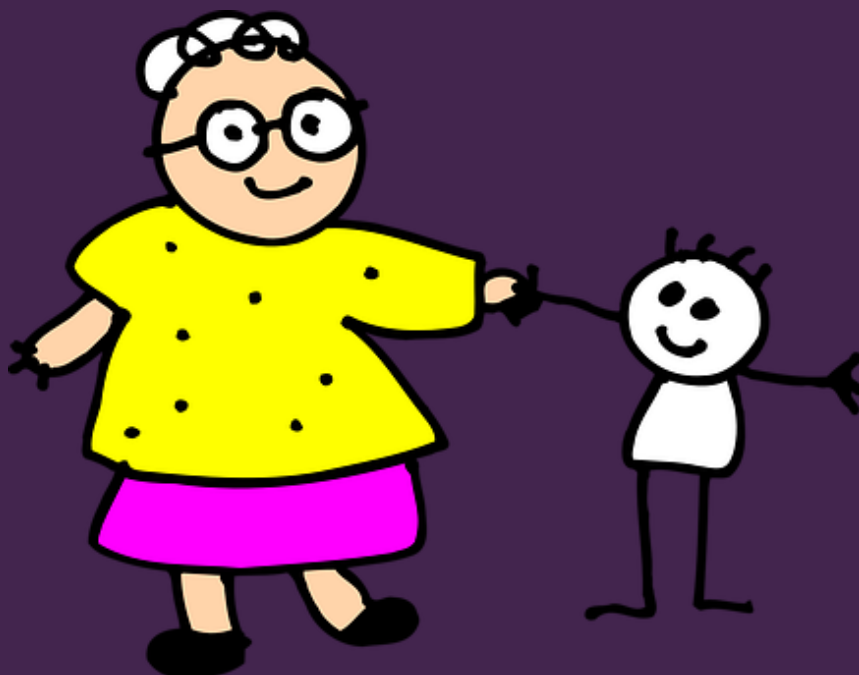

We didn't have any supermarkets; therefore, we went to the markets to buy food. The food was fresher, and the food was very cheap! There were a lot of assortments too.

We lived in huts instead of apartment buildings. It was like a sea of tiny mud houses!

We didn't have any electronic games, so we only used other games that didn't require any electricity. We did not have any theme parks. I just became an adult when the first theme park was built. We only played hopscotch, hide-and-seek, Chinese chess, and a lot of other games. We played in the streets, but usually, they were crowded with merchants, so we played board games in the mud huts. Not only to the merchants, we had trams, buses, trains, and others such as bikes!

I hope all the information pleases you to make a standard school magazine. I'm looking forward to seeing you.

Love,
Grandma

Max Made a Mistake!

BY CHEN KIT LING (5A)

Last night, Max looked quietly out of the window in his home. He saw a man who was secretly climbing the wall. The man had long hair and sunglasses. He was in black trousers and had a T-shirt patterned with dots. Max was frightened because Max believed the man was a thief.

Then, Max called the police immediately because he wanted to report the thief. Max described how the man looked on the phone.

Soon, the police caught the man near Max's flat. They told the man that he was under arrest. The man was shocked because he did not know what was happening.

After a while, the man explained to the police. He forgot to bring his keys. Max was sorry because he found out the man was his neighbour.

Finally, Max said sorry to the police and the man. He made a big mistake.

BY CHAN HOI LAM (5C)

Last Sunday morning, Max's mum wanted to buy something. Max's mum told Max, 'If you finish your homework, you can play games!' Max said, 'Ok, mum!' Then Mum went out. When Max's mum went away, Max took out his phone and played a game happily.

Suddenly, Max heard some noise. He looked out of the window because he thought mum was back. Max saw a woman with sunglasses and in a black T-shirt, like a thief was climbing the wall and wanted to break in Max's neighbor flat. Max felt scared.

After that, Max took out the photo and ran to the toilet. He called the police and reported unclearly, 'There is...thief...' And Max described the woman. And the police said, 'OK, we will come soon!'

Then, the police came and caught that woman. The woman did not know what was happening. And she struggled and shouted, 'Help! Help! Why did you catch me!? Help me!' The woman then said, 'I just forgot to bring the key, I am not a thief!' 'Oh!' Max said. Max suddenly remembered that she was his neighbour, Miss Li!

Then Max ran out and said, 'Sorry! I don't know who you are, so I called the police!' Miss Li said, 'I am fine.' Max's Dad came back and saw the police he thought that something happened and he ran to Max, 'Max, are you ok?' Max saw dad. 'Dad!' Max told dad what happened.

BY ANTHONY (5D)

Last night, Max looked out of the window of his home. He saw a man opening his neighbour's window quietly. Max was frightened because he thought the man was a thief.

Then, Max called the police from his flat. He said, 'I've just seen a man opening my neighbour's window. I think he's a thief!' 'Don't worry, we will come at once,' said the police. Then the police asked, 'What does the man look like?' Max replied, 'The man is in a black T-shirt and trousers with white dots.'

After a while, the police came and caught the man in Max's neighbour's flat. The man was shocked and shouted, 'I'm not a thief! I have climbed into my flat through the window because I forgot to bring the keys.' Then the man took off the sunglasses, Max found out that the man was his neighbour! Max felt guilty and said, 'What have I done? I made such a big trouble.'

In the end, the police said, 'He's your neighbor. Why did you make such a big mistake?' Max replied, 'I don't know he is my neighbour! I'm very sorry.' The police forgave him. Max's neighbour said, 'It's ok! Be careful next time.' Max said, 'I will promise I won't do it again.'

BY MHARCLYDE (5ES/5A)

Last night, Max was going to the toilet. When he was going there, he saw a man wearing a sleeping mask with two holes climbing creepily out of the bathroom window. Max thought he was a murderer or a thief because the clothes that the man was wearing looked like the ones a thief would wear.

After that, Max decided to call the police for help. The call centre operator said politely, "This is 911. What is your emergency?" Max said scarily, "When I was going to the bathroom, I saw a man climbing out of my bathroom. Please send at least two policemen to Room 110, Ma Yat House, Yat Tung Estate!" The operator said, "Alright, we are on the way there. Thank you for calling."

Then, two policemen came within ten minutes! One of the policemen said to the man loudly, "Put your hands up! You have the right to remain silent!" Then the policemen handcuffed the man and one of them said, "Wait a second. This is a woman!" The man and Max looked at the policeman open-mouthed. The man said quickly, "I just have long hair. It doesn't mean I'm a woman!" Max said, "I was about to say that, but he said it first. So, never mind."

After all of that, the policemen decided to take the man to jail. Then the man said, "I'm actually not here to rob. I'm supposed to pick up my key because I was throwing it in the sky. Then there was one time I threw it too high and it went through my window. So, I needed to climb in. I'm sorry for doing that. Sorry to you too, Max." The policeman said, "Okay, I'll give you one chance!" The man said, "Thank you very much, officer!"

In the end, Max realized the man was his next door neighbor. Then, Max asked the man, "What is your name, sir?" The man said, "My name is Wong Zi." Max said, "It is very nice to meet you, Mr Wong Zi." The man said to Max, "It is also very nice to meet you too, Max." They smiled at each other.

Advice for Good Manners

BY CHAN HOI KANG (5B)

It is important to behave well at home and when we are in public places.

We should behave nicely at home. We shouldn't shout at our brothers or sisters. We should listen to parents carefully. We shouldn't quarrel with our brothers or sisters loudly. We should take care of them patiently.

When we are in public places, we should not behave badly either. We shouldn't eat noisily in restaurants. We should talk politely. We should watch movies quietly in the cinema. We should talk softly and politely. We should say 'please' and 'thank you'.

Finally, we should behave well both at home and in public places.

My Dream Job

BY CHEUNG YEE LAM (6A)

I want to be a lawyer when I grow up because it is meaningful and I can contribute to society. If I become a lawyer, I will help people who are in trouble.

I need to study hard so that I can enter one of the universities. I need to study languages so that I can communicate with other people. I need to be patient too. Also, I need to read more books about laws so that I can understand the rules in Hong Kong.

I think this job is suitable for me because I am hard-working. I am patient too. I hope I can be a lawyer some day.

BY WU SAU MAN (6B)

I want to be a teacher when I grow up. I want to be a teacher because it is very meaningful and important. Also, I love children.

If I become a teacher, I will teach children Maths and help them with their homework. I will listen to them when they have problems. I will take care of them when they get hurt. I will mark their homework and deliver knowledge to them. I need to be patient so that I can answer a lot of questions raised by my students. I also need to be understanding so that I can handle arguments fairly. I need to be outgoing too so that I can communicate with children effectively.

In order to prepare myself to become a teacher, I will read more books to learn more knowledge. I will practise speaking so that I can speak fluently and clearly. What is more, I will study hard to get good academic results.

A STORY OF MARY

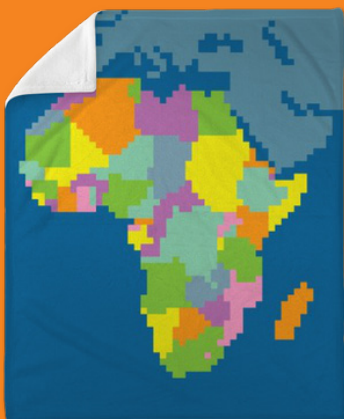

BY KENNETH (6C)

Once upon a time, there was a young girl called Mary who had never done any charity work. She was selfish and mean.

One night, Mary was watching a documentary about poor people in Africa. There was a severe heat wave. Mary thought the documentary was boring. She went to her bedroom and slept. Mary was having a nightmare that she was in Africa. When Mary was there she was thirsty and looking for a glass of fresh cold water with fresh ice cubes. Mary was frightened and lonely because nobody was there and it would be creepy if everyone had died.

Suddenly, Mary changed into a good person. She went back to the charity event and did some charity work to help and protect the poor people.

In the end, Mary was now helpful, kind and protective. Mary learnt that she should not ignore charity work and always be serious to help all the charity events. Mary always helps poor people and each other in every country with charity events.

ENGLISH WRITING ENRICHMENT CLASS

THE STUPID DRAGON

BY SO CHUN WA (6B), WONG KAI YIN (6A)
AND KYLE CHAN (6A)

Once upon a time, there was a very stupid fire dragon called Magic Yag. It breathed fire all over the local town. The king said, 'We need to kill this stupid dragon so that peace can return to us.' Then, the king ordered the soldiers to find the dragon and kill it.

They went to the stupid dragon's cave but their hair caught on fire because the dragon was busy burning marshmallows. They all had to run away and jump into a river.

Then, they found a lady that could speak Dragon language. 'Can you not destroy our town?' she asked the dragon. While they were discussing it, the soldiers jumped out of the trees and tried to kill the dragon. However, the dragon suspected this would happen. His eyes turned totally white and he teleported to another dimension. He honed his ultra instinct and destroyed all the soldiers. He preceded to dab.

A dimensional being appeared and said 'No dabbing in this dimension!' The dragon said, 'I won't do it again, if you can give me an army of powerful dimensional beings.'

Finally, the dragon ruled from a powerful castle and his armies ruled the land. This new country was called "The land of the Ender dragon".

The people lived in fear, forevermore!

acrostic poems

QUEENIE

by: Ma Kwan Yin (6B)

Q ueenie Ma is a good girl.
U m... do you think so?
E ggs are bad for us.
E ggs are a bad food.
N o one will say I am a fish.
I f you don't help me, I'll say bye-bye to you.
E ggs are not yummy.

CHAN WAI

by: Chan Wai (6A)

C han Wai is a handsome and smart boy.
H a! Ha! Ha!
A nd Tsang Lok Yin is a smart boy too.
N ew York's people think so.
W ong Kai Yin is a handsome boy too.
A nd So Chun Wa is a smart boy.
I think so!

TSANG LOK YIN

by: Tsang Lok Yin (6A)

T sang Lok Yin is a good boy.

S o Chun Wa is my friend.

A good friend!

N obody says I am lazy.

G ood!

L ions are eating Mr. Dane.

O h no!

K O!

Y ou think he will be ok?

I think not.

N obody can say he is handsome now!

NEWSLETTER CREATED BY:
MR. DANE CHARLES SCAYSBROOK

EDITED BY:
THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT OF TCCS

Tung Chung Catholic School

Yat Tung Estate
Tung Chung N.T.

Tel: 2109 4962

<http://www.tccs.edu.hk>